About Summer School

The summer school for a certificate course on 'Subaltern Nationalist Visions' is an attempt to cater to the intellectual needs of students, scholars, and professionals interested in Bharat Civilization, Intellectual Traditions, freedom movement, subaltern issues, nation, nationalism, nation-building, and contemporary and historical issues related to nationalist discourse in India. The course is designed to address the conceptual and theoretical concerns surrounding nationalist discourse in India, subaltern nationalist visions, key readings, and related themes. To effectively reach larger groups and facilitate smooth participation despite busy schedules, the program is designed for online delivery.
